

Sarah Stacy Iannarone

Doctoral Student, School of Urban Studies and Planning, Portland State University

Contact

5636 SE 63rd Ave, Portland, OR, 97206
vox: 503.310.7762 email: sari@pdx.edu
e-portfolio: web.pdx.edu/~sari

Education

- 2010-11 Ph.D. Urban Studies and Planning; Grad. Cert. in Urban Design. Portland State University, GPA 3.90
- 2005 B.A. Arts & Letters, Professional Writing minor Portland State University, Summa Cum Laude GPA 3.96
- 1991 N.Y.S. Regents, G. Ray Bodley High School, Fulton, New York. GPA 3.94

Volunteer Service

Community Practice Mentor (2007-8). Social Work Practicum Program, Concordia University, Portland, OR (

The City Repair Project (2006-7). Board of Directors, Secretary

Southeast Uplift Neighborhood Coalition (2005). Annual Leadership Training, Workshop: "Identifying and achieving neighborhood goals"

Undergraduate and McNair Research Conference (2005). Portland, OR. Conference organizer and panel moderator

The Village Building Convergence, (2005, 2006). Portland, OR. Site coordinator

Mt. Scott-Arleta Neighborhood Association, (2003-8) Portland, OR. Vice-chair (05-06), Member-at-large (present)

References

Sy Adler, Ph.D. Urban Studies & Planning, PSU
(503) 725-5172 adlers@pdx.edu

Gerald Sussman, Ph.D. Urban Studies & Planning, PSU
(503) 725-5176 sussmang@pdx.edu

Richard L. White, Ph.D. Urban Studies & Planning, PSU
(503) 725-4046 whiter@pdx.edu

Candyce Reynolds, Ph.D. Graduate School of Education, PSU
(503) 725-4657 drcc@pdx.edu

Selected Experience

University Studies (UNST), Portland State University. Peer Mentor (2003-5), Graduate Mentor (2006-8). Instructed students in word processing, web design, spreadsheets and data analysis; research, writing, and critical thinking skills; and collaborative learning.

University Studies (UNST), Portland State University, Assistant for Mentor Development and Training (AMDAT), Technology Supervisor (2005-8). Delivery of departmental diversity goals, increasing student retention, and training in research and program development skills. Implemented program WIKI, pedagogical archives, and technology curriculum.

EPFA 407/507 Teaching Technology in Higher Education, Instructor, Portland State University

Arleta Library Bakery * Cafe, Portland, OR, Owner (2006-Present). Started small business in marginalized neighborhood dedicated to ecological, economic, and social sustainability.

Ronald E. McNair Postbaccalaureate Achievement Program (2005). Researched values of community building volunteers; data collection through participant observation and in-depth interview; grounded data analysis via QSR's NVivo 2.0.

Arleta Triangle Project, Portland, OR, Director (2004-Present) Lead grassroots transformation of public right of way through community asset mining (financial, political, and social), design charettes, cooperation with city agencies (PDOT, BDS), volunteer coordination, fundraising (inc. grant writing) and long-term neighborhood planning.

Northwest Health Foundation 2nd Annual Conference on Community-Based Collaborative Research. Presenter. Portland, OR, September 2005

American Association of State Colleges and Universities: American Democracy Project National Meeting. Plenary Speaker. Portland, OR, June 2005

Consortium of Liberal Educators of Artists (CLEA) National Conference. Presenter. Seattle, WA, April 2005

Awards

- SEUL Neighborhood Coalition Annual Volunteer Recognition (2005)
- President's Award for Outstanding Community Engagement, Portland State University (2004 & 2005)
- Student Employee of the Year, Western Association of Student Employment Administrators, nominee (2004)
- Phi Beta Kappa, Portland State University, (2003-5)
- Outstanding Young New Yorker, NY State Jaycees, (1991)