Ever Hear a Yodelling Pickle?

Are you sick and tired of trying to convince a jar of pickles to yodel using melodious mind bullets and sheer force of will in front of your German students? At last, here is the Electronic Yodelling Pickle that you had always wished for! It is 6 1/2 inches long and is made of durable plastic. Push the button and this baby yodels its little heart out. You will not be able to suppress a laugh. Batteries included. You say it's strange? I brought it home to test it with my kids... they insisted on hanging it on the Christmas tree!
