

0102

Thursday, Nov. 16 1:00pm – 4:00pm
W<sup>22</sup> Folktales, Fables and Legends: Discover their Power

Learn how to use authentic folktales as a center for language-rich thematic units. Discover how to design performance assessments, target language functions, create activities that support the objectives and maintain instruction in the target language. Get started on creating your own unit with a folktale from the resource packet.

Presenters: Priscilla Russel, Princeton Regional Schools; Paris Granville, Language Shaping Solutions

Keyword: Curriculum

Sponsor: ACTFL

Applicable Languages: All

Target Audience: Elementary, High School, Middle/Jr High

Track: Pre-K-12

Thursday, Nov. 16 1:00pm – 4:00pm
W<sup>23</sup> Creating ePortfolios for Career Growth: Documenting Outstanding Teaching

Participants will learn to create career ePortfolios to document their teaching philosophy, skills, innovations, and achievements. Reflective teaching, classroom technology applications, ACTFL foreign language and professional performance standards will guide and inform creation of teacher ePortfolios in this workshop aimed at administrators, teacher educators, pre-service, novice, and experienced teachers.

Presenter: Jill Robbins, National Capital Language Resource Center

Keyword: Teacher Preparation/Development

Sponsor: ACTFL

Applicable Languages: All

Target Audience: All

Track: General

Thursday, Nov. 16 1:00pm – 4:00pm
W<sup>24</sup> Discover Yourself, Discover Your Class: Reflective Teaching in Foreign Languages

Geared toward teachers seeking to develop a reflective approach to teaching, this workshop addresses both theoretical and practical aspects that sustain reflective practice. Presenters will share a wide range of materials and strategies to facilitate reflective teaching. Participants will leave with an outline for developing a reflective approach to teaching.

Presenters: Marcela van Olphen, University of South Florida; J. Terantino, University of South Florida; Jane Harvey, University of South Florida; Shengrong Cai, University of South Florida

Keyword: Teacher Preparation/Development

Sponsor: ACTFL

Applicable Languages: All

Target Audience: Elementary, High School, Middle/Jr High, Teacher Ed

Track: General

Thursday, Nov. 16 1:00pm – 4:00pm
W<sup>25</sup> Podcasting/Videocasting in The Foreign Language Classroom: How To Make It Happen

Students and teachers will become and are becoming more and more portable and mobile learners. This workshop addresses how podcasting and videocasting can help students and teachers discover, promote and engage in the learning of the languages they are studying and teaching. Participants will spend time making and producing short and practical podcasts/videocasts.

Presenter: Tony Spanos, Weber State University

Keyword: Technology

Sponsor: ACTFL

Applicable Languages: All

Target Audience: Community College, Govt/Adult Ed, High School, Higher Ed, Teacher Ed

Track: General

ACTFL Conference
Nashville 16-19 Nov 06