Dear Dee, Bill, Beth, Katie and Becky.

Hello. How are you?

I was very happy to receive the box from you.

Thank you very much. It reminded me of a great time I had with you in Portland. I put the picture frame on the bookcase in my room so that I can see it all the time. I explained my mother that this is Bill when he was doing calligraphy, and this is Dee when she wore Japanese kimono on my first day in Portland. Beth, Katie and Becky are so pretty. I think they're getting taller and bigger. Maybe next time when I see them again, it'll be difficult for me to tell them apart. I enjoyed the Portland video, too. It was really a sweet pleasure to gaze upon the scenery of my second hometown again after such a long time. I love a lot of letters from Katie. Thank you, Katie.

I would like to see you again and speak in Japanese with you.
