

For Today

- Final is Tuesday, June 8 at 5:30pm
- Bring all your tables
- Final has 25 4point questions only eight of which involve calculations
- A cross reference relating the questions from the first two exams to the text,lectures and HW pages has been posted
- Timeline
 - Last HW due Monday, June 7 at 5pm. The data will probably not be downloaded until noon on Tues-but don't count on it
 - I will be on campus from about noon on Tues
 - Scores on the web should be updated by around 2pm on Tues and will be complete at that point. You should check them ASAP
 - All corrections/challenges must be submitted by noon, Wed, June 9. After that the data is locked
 - Finals should be graded and course grades assigned by noon on Thurs, June 10.
 - I will be out of town until 6/16
- For students needing letters of recommendation, wanting to pick up their finals and so on, I will be on campus intermittently until October and then will generally be around on a May to October timeframe in the same locale.
- Web materials will remain available with the intent to update the download stuff before July.

One last thing to marvel at
